

VISAKHA GOVT. DEGREE COLLEGE for WOMEN

Policy on code of conduct and ethics

The institution is committed to achieve academic excellence and empowerment of women students through imparting a value based education. In this context the college has set a standard code of conduct to the college stakeholders and the code of conduct is monitored by various committees such as anti ragging committee, disciplinary committee, internal complaints committee and student council.

This Policy indicates the standard procedures and practices for appropriate Conduct and Ethics for the entire Faculty as employees and all the Students who have enrolled in this institute to study various Programs.

The code of conduct monitoring committees ensures the discipline and inculcation of ethical values among the students. Various programs on professional ethics are organized every year which foster the values required to evolve as responsible and empowered individuals.

The college has antiragging/grievances&redressal cell which helps to address the grievances of the students and ensures the speedy redressal of issues by taking the necessary action on any kind of violation of code of conduct.

The students of the college have the privilege of electing the student union body through the class representatives so that they can have a close interaction with the union representatives and resolve the issues at the earliest.

VCPAC (Visakha centre for psychological Assessment and counseling) is another significant initiative of the college with an objective to shape the students behavior and help them with their academic and psychological issues through counseling. In this program psychology students perform as counselors and assist their clients on varied problems; the students from the other colleges can also be benefitted from this program.

The code of conduct is placed on the college website at <https://womengovtcollegevisakha.ac.in/aboutus/code-of-conduct.php>

Objectives of the policy:

- The code articulates the standard values of the institution to be fostered among the stakeholders.
- To avoid unethical actions for ensuring safety to the stakeholders.
- To guarantee the strict monitoring of code of ethics and ensure discipline in the college.
- To motivate the students and staff by organizing professional ethics programs.
- To impart a value based education and transform the students as empowered citizens.
- To establish professional standards and positive integrity at the workplace.
